VISITING WRITERS SERIES
Wesley Yang
Damon Young
Rick Reilly
Mahogany Browne
Yolanda Caraway
Minyon Moore
Jennifer Block
Lisa Kron
Scott Simon
Sister Helen Prejean
Jerome Charyn
Colson Whitehead
Andy Greenberg
Nadina LaSpina
Valeria Luiselli

TRIBUTE TO TONI MORRISON
(1931-2019)

SPECIAL EVENTS
ALBANY FILM FESTIVAL
THE CREATIVE LIFE SERIES
Jhumpa Lahiri • Jerry Saltz
AUTHORS THEATRE
LATINIDADES SERIES
WRITING LIFE & HEALTH SERIES

New York State Writers Institute
UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY State University of New York

EVENTS CALENDAR SPRING 2020
We feel Toni Morrison’s presence at the NYS Writers Institute, and mourn her loss. We preserved her desk and office chair. We have a folder containing clippings, photographs and a program that bears her signature. We are leading a University-wide effort to honor Toni Morrison, our friend and former University at Albany colleague, who died in the Bronx on August 5, 2019 at age 88. Morrison is a towering figure in world literature and an iconic voice of the Black experience. Her luminous prose captivates each new generation of readers.

The Nobel Prize-winning author spent five years as the Albert Schweitzer Chair in the Humanities at UAlbany (1984-89). She shared office space with our founder, William Kennedy, and collaborated frequently with the Writers Institute. Morrison addressed a packed audience in the Campus Center Ballroom on September 13, 1984, just the second featured writer in our history. Morrison wrote parts of Beloved, one of the most acclaimed novels in all of American literature, while at UAlbany. The book won the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 1988. She organized “The Birth of Black Cinema,” a three-day symposium at Page Hall in 1988 that included Spike Lee. She brought to campus Ralph Ellison, acclaimed author of The Invisible Man, as well as Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis. Morrison wrote “Dreaming Emmett,” a drama about Emmett Till, and the Writers Institute co-sponsored its premiere at Capital Repertory Theatre in Albany in 1986. Morrison taught a fiction workshop, mentored UAlbany students, raised our consciousness about racial injustice and left an indelible mark.

As part of our tribute, we open our spring series with a January 24 screening of The Pieces I Am, a documentary about Morrison’s life and work, followed by a panel discussion and remembrance. This leads off a series of free Classic Film Series screenings at Page Hall, featuring films we will discuss at the Albany Film Festival March 28, 2020 on the uptown UAlbany campus. Enjoy the communal experience of watching these movies on the big screen with a large audience: The Seagull (Feb. 7), I Like It Like That (Feb. 14), Motherless Brooklyn (Feb. 21), Do the Right Thing (Feb. 28) and The Irishman (March 13). Then, join us on March 28 for a conversation with the director, screenwriter or author of the books those films are based upon at the Albany Film Festival – an exploration of the intersection of writing and film.

We also will celebrate science writing and UAlbany’s nationally recognized programs in health and life sciences research through a special series called Writing Life and Health. Award-winning Mexican novelist and essayist Valeria Luiselli (April 22) headlines our Latinidades at the Writers Institute series, a celebration of Latinx voices in writing and the arts.

Many powerful conversations about great literature and pressing social issues await you. As Toni Morrison wrote: “Correct what you can; learn from what you can’t.”

---

“Toni Morrison was the rarest of rare birds, a singular voice in American literary history”

—William Kennedy
A TRIBUTE TO TONI MORRISON (1931-2019)

January 24 (Friday)

Film Screening and Remembrance — 7:00 p.m.

Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus

We gather to pay tribute to Toni Morrison, giant of American literature, Nobel laureate, University at Albany professor (1984-89), and the subject of the beautiful film, THE PIECES I AM. Toni was a member of the Writers Institute’s office family during the early years of our organization. While in residence, she wrote Beloved, one of the landmark novels of 20th century literature, premiered her first play “Dreaming Emmett,” (January 1986) about the murder of Emmett Till, and produced “The Birth of Black Cinema” symposium (1988).

THE PIECES I AM

(United States, 2019, 120 minutes, color and b/w)

Directed by Timothy Greenfield-Sanders.

An artful and intimate meditation on the life and works of Toni Morrison — from her childhood in the steel town of Lorain, Ohio, to ’70s-era book tours with Muhammad Ali, from the front lines with Angela Davis to her own riverfront writing room. The film features interviews with the 88-year-old author, as well as Oprah Winfrey, Hilton Als, Angela Davis, Fran Lebowitz, Walter Mosley, Sonia Sanchez and many more.

NOTE: A discussion of Toni Morrison’s life and work featuring members of the University at Albany community will immediately follow the film screening.

Cosponsored by UAlbany’s Office of Diversity & Inclusion and The Women’s Leadership Institute at The College of Saint Rose.
the creative life

A Conversation Series at UAlbany

SPRING 2020 SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

JANUARY

Created and produced by the New York State Writers Institute, University Art Museum, and UAlbany Performing Arts Center in collaboration with WAMC Northeast Public Radio, this series features leading figures from a variety of artistic disciplines in conversation with WAMC’s “Roundtable” host Joe Donahue about creative inspiration, craft, and career.

January 30 (Thursday)

Jhumpa Lahiri

Pulitzer Prize-winning author

Conversation with WAMC's Joe Donahue — 7:00 p.m., Recital Hall, Performing Arts Center

One of the best-loved fiction writers of her generation, renowned for her novels of East Indian American immigrant experience, Jhumpa Lahiri fell completely in love with Italian language and literature beginning in 2012. She now reads exclusively in Italian, and spends half the year in Italy. She recently edited and published The Penguin Book of Italian Short Stories (2019), a landmark collection of short works of fiction—nearly half appearing in English for the first time. During her visit, Lahiri will share her insights into the benefits of immersion in a foreign language for creativity, for broadening perspectives in an increasingly global culture, and for the appreciation of art and life. In her introduction, she says, “Only works in translation can broaden the literary horizon, open doors, break down the wall.” Her previous books include The Lowland (2013), Unaccustomed Earth (2008), The Namesake (2003), and Interpreter of Maladies (1999), winner of the Pulitzer Prize.

Following the conversation, there will be a book signing and reception in the theatre lounge.

Major support for The Creative Life is provided by The University at Albany Foundation with additional support from the UAlbany Alumni Association, College of Arts and Sciences, Office of Intercultural Student Engagement, and University Auxiliary Services.
FEBRUARY

A SPECIAL SPRING SERIES: Writing Life and Health

Celebrating science writing and the University at Albany’s nationally-recognized programs in health and life sciences research

February 3 (Monday)

Sandeep Jauhar, MD, bestselling author

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m., Multi-Purpose Room, Campus Center West Addition
Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m., Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus

Cosponsored by UAlbany’s RNA Institute and School of Public Health, UAlbany’s Women in Science and Health network (WISH), and the Hudson Valley RNA Club.

February 4 (Tuesday)

Ryan Russell

NFL football player and poet

Keynote — 8:00 p.m., Campus Center Ballroom

Ryan Russell is the first openly LGBTQ player in the NFL, and the only male athlete in the four major professional sports leagues to self-identify as LGBTQ. Currently a free agent, Russell played football for Purdue University, the Dallas Cowboys (2015) and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2016-17). Russell is also a writer and published poet. His first book of poetry, Prison or Passion (2019), captures the struggles of being a young boy without a father, and the strength that comes from building one’s own definition of manhood.

Sponsored by UAlbany’s Sexuality Month, an annual spring series of the Middle Earth Peer Assistance Program of the Center for Behavioral Health Promotion. Cosponsors include the Division of Student Affairs, Student Association, UAS, and the NYS Writers Institute.

For the full schedule of Sexuality Month events, visit: albany.edu/behavioralhealth
BEING ASIAN IN AMERICA

February 6 (Thursday)

Wesley Yang, journalist and essayist

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m.,
Standish Room, Science Library

Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m.,
Multi-Purpose Room,
Campus Center West Addition

National Magazine Award-winning essayist Wesley Yang presents The Souls of Yellow Folk (2018), a powerful collection of essays about the biases faced by Asian Americans, and the peculiar racial anxieties awakened in the larger public by their successes.

Director Michael Mayer, who will appear at the 1st Albany Film Festival (see pages 2-3), won the 2007 Tony Award for Best Direction of a Musical for SPRING AWAKENING.

FILM SCREENING

February 7 (Friday)

THE SEAGULL

Screening — 7:30 p.m.,
Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue,
Downtown Campus
(United States, 2018,
98 minutes, color)
Directed by Michael Mayer.

This adaptation of Anton Chekhov’s classic features an all-star cast including Annette Bening, Saoirse Ronan, Elizabeth Moss and many others.
WHAT DOESN’T KILL YOU MAKES YOU BLACKER

February 13 (Thursday)
Damon Young
journalist and humorist

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m., Multi-Purpose Room, Campus Center West Addition
Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m., Campus Center West Auditorium

Damon Young is the author of the new book, What Doesn’t Kill You Makes You Blacker (2019), about surviving in a world where “existing while Black is an extreme sport.”

Entertainment Weekly said Young “has already established himself as one of our most vibrant voices on race. Now comes his first book, a blazing memoir in essays.” A senior editor for The Root, Young is co-founder and editor-in-chief of the online magazine, VerySmartBrothas, which is now an integral component of The Root. VSB was dubbed “the blackest thing that ever happened to the internet” by the Washington Post. Young is also a columnist for GQ.com, and the author of Your Degrees Won’t Keep You Warm at Night: The Very Smart Brothas Guide to Dating, Mating, and Fighting Crime.

DARNELL MARTIN, who has worked on major films with Oprah, Beyoncé and Spike Lee, will appear at the 1st Albany Film Festival (see pages 2-3).

FILM SCREENING
February 14 (Friday)
I LIKE IT LIKE THAT

Screening — 7:30 p.m., Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus
(United States, 1994, 104 minutes, color)

Written and directed by

Darnell Martin. Starring Luna Lauren Velez, Jon Seda.

The first-ever film from a Hollywood studio to be directed by an African American woman, I LIKE IT LIKE THAT presents the marital difficulties of a young Puerto Rican couple living in the South Bronx.
an impressive number of interviews with caddies, partners, opponents, golf pros and employees, Reilly presents a vivid glimpse into the President’s inner life. Named the NSMA National Sportswriter of the Year a total of eleven times, Reilly is renowned for his commentary at Sports Illustrated (1985-2007), particularly his back page column “The Life of Reilly,” and for his eight years at ESPN. He is also the winner of the Damon Runyon Award for Outstanding Contributions to Journalism. USA Today called him, “the closest thing sportswriting ever had to a rock star.”

BECOMING HER OWN REVOLUTION

February 20 (Thursday)

Mahogany Browne

poet, writer, activist and educator

Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m.,
Huxley Theatre, NYS Museum,
Cultural Education Center, Albany

Additional event on February 21 (Friday)

Presentation/Q&A — 6:00 p.m.,
Hudson Area Library, 51 N. 5th St., Hudson

Mahogany Browne is one of the leading poet-activists of the New York City arts scene. Ploughshares declared that “Browne has become her own revolution”—an artist committed in word and deed to changing the world. Both educator and organizer, she is curator of the Nuyorican Poets Cafe Friday Night Slam, publisher of Penmanship Books, founder of the Women Writers of Color Reading Room, director of Black Lives Matter at Pratt Institute, and artistic director at Urban Word NYC. Her poetry collections include Kissing Caskets (2017) and Redbone (2016). Her YA and children’s books include Black Girl Magic (2018), Woke Baby (2018), and Woke: A Young Poet’s Call to Justice (March 2020).

Cosponsored by the Hudson Area Library, NYS Museum and the Office of Cultural Education to mark the 2020 Centennial of Women’s Suffrage.
FOR COLORED GIRLS WHO HAVE CONSIDERED POLITICS

February 27 (Thursday)

Yolanda Caraway and Minyon Moore

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m., Standish Room, Science Library
Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m., Campus Center Ballroom

Yolanda Caraway and Minyon Moore, political strategists and organizers, are coauthors with Donna Brazile and Leah Daughtry of the book, For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Politics (2018), a group memoir of four women who are among the most influential African Americans in the U.S. political sphere.

Yolanda Caraway served as Chief of Staff of the National Rainbow Coalition and Jesse Jackson’s 1988 presidential campaign; Deputy Assistant Political Director for the Mondale/Ferraro 1984 presidential campaign; Director of the DNC’s Fairness Commission; and Deputy Chair of the Democratic National Committee. She is currently President and CEO of The Caraway Group, a D.C.-based public relations firm that she founded in 1987.

Minyon Moore was Assistant to the President and Director of White House Political Affairs during the Clinton Administration, serving as principal political adviser to the President, Vice President, First Lady and senior White House staff. She also worked as senior advisor to Jesse Jackson, Michael Dukakis and Hillary Clinton during their presidential campaigns. She is currently a principal of the Washington D.C. political consulting firm, The Dewey Square Group.

Cosponsored by the UAlbany Student Association.

---

FILM SCREENING

February 21 (Friday)

MOTHERLESS BROOKLYN

Screening — 7:00 p.m., Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus

Based on the bestselling novel by Jonathan Lethem, MOTHERLESS BROOKLYN is the tale of a NYC detective with Tourette syndrome. Both book and film pay homage to the film noir genre.

---

Bestselling author JONATHAN LETHEM will appear at the 1st Albany Film Festival (see pages 2-3).
MARCH

A SPECIAL SPRING SERIES: Writing Life and Health

March 3 (Tuesday)

Jennifer Block, health care journalist, in conversation with Elisa Albert, fiction writer

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m., Multi-Purpose Room, Campus Center West Addition

Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m., Huxley Theatre, NYS Museum, Cultural Education Center, Albany

Jennifer Block is the author of an eye-opening investigation into the shortcomings of women’s health care—Everything Below the Waist: Why Health Care Needs a Feminist Revolution (2019), “a must-read for women, especially any woman who might ever need to see a doctor” (Washington Post). Block is also the author of Pushed (2007), about the national crisis in maternity care. Her investigative reporting into problems with the contraceptive implant, Essure, helped bring about the product’s discontinuation.

Cosponsored by UAlbany’s RNA Institute and School of Public Health, UAlbany’s Women in Science and Health network (WISH), the Hudson Valley RNA Club, and the NYS Museum and Office of Cultural Education to mark the 2020 Centennial of Women’s Suffrage.
March 6 (Friday)
Lady Pink

Graffiti artist, activist and educator, and film screening of WILD STYLE

Film screening and Q&A — 7:00 p.m., Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus

Lady Pink, a major figure of New York’s graffiti subculture of the 1970s and ‘80s, is the creator of artwork in the collections of many of the world’s leading museums, including the Whitney, the MET, and the Groninger Museum of Holland. The Ecuador-born artist continues to paint commissioned, custom-made mural work. For decades, she has led mural workshops for teenagers, in order to help them realize their artistic visions and to beautify their neighborhoods. Lady Pink will spend the afternoon with students at Albany High School.

SAM POLLARD, legendary movie editor will visit the 1st Albany Film Festival (see pages 2-3).

WILD STYLE
(United States, 1983, 82 minutes, color)
Directed by Charlie Ahearn.
Lady Pink stars with ‘Lee’ George Quinones in this film about urban graffiti culture and guerilla artistry in the 1980s. Widely regarded as the first-ever hip-hop motion picture, the film features rare footage of music icon Grandmaster Flash, as well as The Rock Steady Crew, Cold Crush Brothers and Queen Lisa Lee, among others.

Cosponsored by the UAlbany Department of Latin American, Caribbean and U.S. Latino Studies (LACS).
March 9 (Monday)

Lisa Kron

Tony Award-winning playwright

The 24th Annual Burian Lecture — 7:30 p.m.,
Campus Center West Auditorium

Lisa Kron, actress and playwright, wrote the lyrics and book for the hit Broadway musical, FUN HOME, winner of the 2015 Tony Awards for Best Musical, Best Original Score and Best Book of a Musical. A story of family and sexual awakening, and the first Broadway musical with a lesbian protagonist, FUN HOME is a musical adaptation of Alison Bechdel’s bestselling graphic memoir of the same name. Ben Brantley of the NY Times called it, “a beautiful heartbreaker of a musical.” Kron is also a founder of the award-winning theatre company, The Five Lesbian Brothers, renowned for absurdist humor and the puncturing of lesbian stereotypes.

Presented by the UAlbany Theatre Program and the Jarka and Grayce Burian Endowment in collaboration with the NYS Writers Institute.

March 10 (Tuesday)

Scott Simon

host of NPR’s “Weekend Edition”

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m.,
Standish Room, Science Library
Presentation/Conversation — 7:30 p.m.,
Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus

Scott Simon, beloved host of NPR’s “Weekend Edition” since it first aired in 1985, and one of the best-known voices on American radio, will present his new middle grade book, Sunnyside Plaza (2020). The book tells the story of a developmentally disabled adult woman who seeks to solve the mystery of a number of suspicious deaths in her group home. Kirkus called it, “A tender insight into being different and wonderful.”
“DEAD MAN WALKING” AUTHOR PRESENTS NEW MEMOIR

March 23 (Monday)

Sister Helen Prejean
depenalty activist and nun
Q&A — 4:15 p.m.,
Standish Room, Science Library
Presentation/Conversation
7:30 p.m., Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus

Helen Prejean is a Roman Catholic nun and a preeminent advocate for the abolition of the death penalty. Her bestselling book about ministering to death row inmates, Dead Man Walking (1993), was adapted as a 1995 film starring Susan Sarandon (as Sister Helen) and Sean Penn. A member of the Congregation of St. Joseph based in New Orleans, Prejean has previously served as chairperson of the National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty. Her new memoir, River of Fire (2019), recounts her spiritual journey from praying for God to solve the world's problems to engaging full-tilt in working to address societal injustices.

Cosponsored by UAlbany’s School of Criminal Justice.

CHARLES BRANDT, author of I Heard You Paint Houses will appear at the 1st Albany Film Festival (see pages 2-3).

FILM SCREENING
March 13 (Friday)

THE IRISHMAN
Screening — 6:30 p.m.
[NOTE EARLY START TIME], Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus
(United States, 2019, 209 minutes, color)
Directed by Martin Scorcese.
Starring Robert De Niro, Al Pacino and Joe Pesci
A major film event of 2019, this gangster movie about the disappearance of Jimmy Hoffa is based on the book I Heard You Paint Houses by homicide investigator and true crime author Charles Brandt.

Charles Brandt, author of I Heard You Paint Houses will appear at the 1st Albany Film Festival (see pages 2-3).
March 24 (Tuesday)

Jerry Saltz

Pulitzer Prize-winning art critic

Book signing and reception — 6:00 p.m.,
University Art Museum

Conversation with WAMC's Joe Donahue
7:00 p.m., Campus Center West Auditorium

Jerry Saltz is one of the most influential and popular culture writers working today. Since 2006, he has been senior art critic and columnist for New York Magazine. Formerly the senior art critic for The Village Voice, he received the Pulitzer Prize for Criticism in 2018, and was nominated for that award in both 2001 and 2006. For two seasons, he was a judge on Bravo's “Work of Art: The Next Great Artist.” His new book,
How to Be An Artist (2020), is full of practical inspiration for creative people - brimming with dozens of brand new rules, prompts, exercises and tips designed to break through creative blocks, ignite motivation, conquer bad habits and help artists of all kinds to realize their dreams. Comedian and artist Steve Martin says, “Inspiration leaps off the pages from Jerry Saltz’s new book on creativity!”

Major support for The Creative Life is provided by The University at Albany Foundation with additional support from the UAlbany Alumni Association, College of Arts and Sciences, Office of Intercultural Student Engagement, and University Auxiliary Services.

March 28 (Saturday): Albany Film Festival
See pages 2-3 and visit albanyfilmfestival.org for more details.
LATINIDADES AT THE WRITERS INSTITUTE

A DOMINICAN WRESTLES WITH HIS ISLAND’S HISTORY

March 31 (Tuesday)

EDDIE’S PEREJIL

A solo play written and performed by Edward Paulino
Performance — 7:30 p.m., Main Theatre, Performing Arts Center
Followed by Q&A with Edward Paulino and director Samantha Galarza

EDDIE’S PEREJIL is a gripping solo play written and performed by Edward Paulino about a working-class Dominican-American college student who stumbles upon a document describing a long-forgotten genocide against Haitians by Dominicans known as the 1937 Haitian Massacre, el Corte, and temwayaj kout kouto. This discovery and subsequent self-reflection sets him on an inescapable collision course with his romanticized notion of what it means to be Dominican in the diaspora.

Edward Paulino, professor of global history at John Jay College, CUNY, co-founded Border of Lights, an organization that commemorates the 1937 genocidal Haitian massacre and promotes solidarity between Haitians and Dominicans. He serves on the board of the Northern Manhattan Coalition for Immigration Rights. He is also the author of Dividing Hispaniola: The Dominican Republic’s Border Campaign against Haiti, 1930-1961 (2016).

Samantha Galarza is a queer, mixed-race, Puerto Rican, SAG-AFTRA actress/writer/singer/performance artist/educator/director. As an “art-ivist,” her work explores queer identity politics, fluidity, gender, systemic and internalized racism, love, substance abuse, migration, and the U.S. prison industrial complex.

Cosponsored by UAlbany’s Department of Latin American, Caribbean and U.S. Latino Studies (LACS), Department of Anthropology, Department of Sociology, and the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures (LLC).
THE ADVENTURES OF TEDDY ROOSEVELT

April 2 (Thursday)

Jerome Charyn
novelist, in conversation with Paul Grondahl, TR biographer

Conversation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m.,
Huxley Theatre, NYS Museum,
Cultural Education Center, Albany

Jerome Charyn, a colossus of American letters, is the author of fifty books in the last fifty years, including thirty novels. Michael Chabon calls him “one of the most important writers in American literature.” Jonathan Yardley of the Washington Post said, “Give this guy a Pulitzer.... No one deserves it more.” Charyn’s recent novels have fictionalized the lives of Emily Dickinson, Abraham Lincoln and Jerzy Kosiński. His new book is The Perilous Adventures of the Cowboy King:
A Novel of Teddy Roosevelt and His Times (2019), a rollicking tale of the sickly child, NYC
Police Commissioner, environmentalist, Rough Rider and “perfect bull in a china shop” who became our 26th President.

Paul Grondahl, director of the Writers Institute, is the author of I Rose Like a Rocket:

Cosponsored by the UAlbany History Department, Friends of the New York State Library,
NYS Museum and Office of Cultural Education.

LATINIDADES AT THE WRITERS INSTITUTE

FILM SCREENING

April 3 (Friday)

PURGATORIO: A JOURNEY INTO
THE HEART OF THE BORDER

Screening — 7:30 p.m., Page Hall,
135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus
(Mexico/USA, 2013, 80 minutes, color, in Spanish and English) Directed by Rodrigo Reyes.

This stunning documentary about life and landscape
at the US-Mexico border was directed by Rodrigo Reyes, who visited Albany in 2018 with his award-winning feature, LUPE UNDER THE SUN.
Former NYS Writers Institute videographer Hugo
Perez co-wrote PURGATORIO.
AUTHORS THEATRE

April 6 (Monday)

Staged Reading — 7:30 p.m.
Arena Theatre, Performing Arts Center

Staged reading of the new play INTERSTATE with equity actors and UAlbany students, followed by Q&A with playwright Amina Henry and director Sarah Blush

INTERSTATE follows the cross-country drive of 40-something flight attendant Red and her two kids, Robin and Manny, who are too old to be taking a vacation with their mother. Ex-boyfriends are visited; Texas gets weird; and the Grand Canyon is reached at last. A funny and irreverent new play, INTERSTATE asks what it means to be family, and what it is to be a woman.

Amina Henry is a significant emerging playwright. Recent productions include THE ANIMALS, DUCKLINGS, HUNTER JOHN AND JANE and THE JOHNSONS (at JACK, Brooklyn, NY) and BULLY (SUNY Purchase, Clubbed Thumb WinterWorks).

Sarah Blush’s directing projects include Amina Henry’s BULLY; Bailey Williams’ I THOUGHT I WOULD DIE BUT I DIDN’T, a Time Out Critics Pick; and SEHNSUCHT, a New York Times Critics Pick.

Presented by the UAlbany Theatre Program and the Jarka and Grayce Burian Endowment in collaboration with the NYS Writers Institute.
Colson Whitehead, a leading writer of his generation, received the Pulitzer Prize, National Book Award and Carnegie Medal for his #1 New York Times bestseller, The Underground Railroad (2016). Whitehead also serves as New York’s official State Author by proclamation of Governor Cuomo under the auspices of the New York State Writers Institute. His new novel is The Nickel Boys (2019), about young men struggling to survive in a Florida reform school based on the notorious, real-life Dozier School for Boys, where dozens of young inmates died under suspicious circumstances.

Sponsored by Rensselaer’s 79th Annual McKinney Writing Contest and Reading; Vollmer W. Fries Lecture; Department of Communication and Media; School of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences; Rensselaer Union; Friends of the Folsom Library; Poets & Writers; and the NYS Writers Institute. For directions: http://www.rpi.edu/tour/index.html

A NEW ERA OF CYBERWAR AND CYBERSECURITY

Andy Greenberg is the author of Sandworm: A New Era of Cyberwar and the Hunt for the Kremlin’s Most Dangerous Hackers (2019). The LA Times said, “Sandworm is much more than a true-life techno-thriller. It’s a tour through a realm that is both invisible and critical to the daily lives of every person alive in the 21st century.” An award-winning senior writer for Wired, Greenberg covers security, privacy, information freedom, and hacker culture. His previous book, This Machine Kills Secrets (2012), was a New York Times Editor’s Choice.

Cosponsored by the University at Albany’s College of Emergency Preparedness, Homeland Security and Cybersecurity (CEHC), the first college of its kind in the nation, and a launch pad for the next generation of cybersecurity professionals. Studies have indicated a need for 1.8 million new cybersecurity experts worldwide by 2022.
WINNER OF THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

April 15 (Wednesday)

Leymah Gbowee
Liberian peace activist and Nobel laureate
Presentation/Conversation — 12:00 p.m.,
Location TBD, UAlbany Uptown Campus

Leymah Gbowee received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2011 for her work in leading a women’s peace movement that brought an end to the Second Liberian Civil War in 2003. Gbowee shared the prize with fellow Liberian Ellen Johnson Sirleaf and Yemen-native Tawakkol Karman. Gbowee and Sirleaf became the second and third African women to win the prize. Gbowee is the founder and president of Gbowee Peace Foundation Africa, which provides educational and leadership opportunities to girls, women and youth in West Africa. She is also the author of Mighty Be Our Powers: How Sisterhood, Prayer and Sex Changed a Nation at War (2011).

Sponsored by the Department of Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies in partnership with more than a dozen UAlbany schools and departments.

CELEBRATING THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)

April 17 (Friday)

Nadina LaSpina
disability rights activist and author

Disability Resource Center Awards/
Celebration/Reception — 3:00-5:00 p.m.,
Campus Center Assembly Hall
Presentation/Conversation — 7:30 p.m.,
Huxley Theatre, NYS Museum,
Cultural Education Center, Albany

Nadina LaSpina is a prominent activist in the disability rights movement who has been arrested countless times for civil disobedience. This past July, she served as the Grand Marshal of the 5th Annual Disability Pride Parade in New York City. She is the author of the new memoir, Such a Pretty Girl (2019). The book spans her remarkable life from her early years with polio, and her experience as an object of well-meaning pity in her native Sicily; to her adolescence in America, spent almost entirely in hospitals, where she is tortured in the quest for a cure; to her subsequent rebellion, activism, and growing ability to claim and enjoy her own beauty.

Cosponsored by the UAlbany Disability Resource Center in honor of the 30th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and the NYS Museum and Office of Cultural Education to mark the 2020 Centennial of Women’s Suffrage.
LATINIDADES AT THE WRITERS INSTITUTE

BRIDGING IMMIGRANT AND ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

April 22 (Wednesday)

The Power of Storytelling with

Valeria Luiselli

novelist and essayist

Craft Talk — 4:15 p.m.,
Standish Room, Science Library

Earth Day reception and events begin at 6:00 p.m., Capital District LATINOS,
160 Central Ave, Albany.

Visit Capital District LATINOS
on Facebook for schedule.

Author Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m.,
Capital District LATINOS, Fellowship Hall

Valeria Luiselli, winner of a 2019 MacArthur “Genius” Award, is a bestselling New York-based Mexican author who writes fiction and nonfiction to voice her outrage about issues regarding 21st century migration in the United States. She received the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for her bestselling 2015 novel, The Story of My Teeth, and the National Book Critics Circle Award for her 2017 nonfiction book, Tell Me How It Ends: An Essay in 40 Questions. Her new novel is Lost Children Archive (2019), about one family’s road trip from New York to Arizona—into the heart of the immigration crisis. It was named a Best Book of 2019 by the NY Times, TIME, NPR, and O, The Oprah Magazine.

Cosponsored by Capital District LATINOS.
A SPECIAL SPRING SERIES: Writing Life and Health

April 23 (Thursday)

Dr. B. Janet Hibbs
psychologist, family therapist and author

Q&A — 4:15 p.m., Multi-Purpose Room, Campus Center West Addition
Presentation/Q&A — 7:30 p.m., Campus Center West Auditorium

B. Janet Hibbs, a leading expert in adolescent mental health, is coauthor with Anthony Rostain, MD, of The Stressed Years of Their Lives: Helping Your Kid Survive and Thrive During Their College Years (2019). Amid high rates of anxiety and depression among students on college campuses, The Stressed Years of Their Lives reaffirms the vital importance of families in keeping kids healthy, and building social and emotional readiness for school.

Cosponsored by UAlbany’s Center for Behavioral Health Promotion and Applied Research, RNA Institute and School of Public Health, UAlbany’s Women in Science and Health network (WISH), and the Hudson Valley RNA Club.

LATINIDADES AT THE WRITERS INSTITUTE

CELEBRATING NATIONAL MONTH OF HOPE

April 24 (Friday)

Zine Festival: Promoting Justice and Hope Through Creative Writing

1:00 p.m. — 3:30 p.m., Capital District LATINOS, 160 Central Ave, Albany

“Zines”, short for magazines or fanzines, are self-made and published creative writing pieces that explore a topic of interest. They are created with any available materials from collage, digital photography, hand-written writing, cartoons, pasted images, and digital designs. The Zine Fair hosted by Capital District LATINOS will feature zines by over 100 students from UAlbany, Saint Rose, Emma Willard School, Averill Park and Castle Island Montessori. Come experience how students, from elementary school to college, examine important issues of racial justice, culture, identity, language, gender and more. You can even begin to create your own zine!

Sponsored by Capital District LATINOS and UAlbany’s Department of Latin American, Caribbean and U.S. Latino Studies (LACS).
FILM SCREENING
April 24 (Friday)
BABY FACE
Screening — 7:30 p.m., Page Hall, 135 Western Avenue, Downtown Campus (United States, 1933, 76 minutes, b/w)
Directed by Alfred E. Green.
Starring Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent.
A classic of pre-Code Hollywood, BABY FACE tells the story of a young woman who uses sexual charm for personal and social advancement. This screening will feature "objectionable" footage removed in 1933 by the New York State Censorship Board in its mission to protect public morality.
Cosponsored by the NYS Archives Partnership Trust in association with the archive of the NYS Department of Motion Picture Censorship in Manuscripts and Special Collections of the NYS Library.

A SPECIAL SPRING SERIES: Writing Life and Health
April 29 (Wednesday)
Louise Aronson, MD
bestselling author on aging
Presentation/Q&A [REGISTRATION REQUIRED]
10:00 a.m., Carondelet Hospitality Center, 385 Watervliet Shaker Rd, Latham
Presentation/Conversation — 4:15 p.m., Multi-Purpose Room, Campus Center West Addition

Louise Aronson is author of the New York Times bestseller, Elderhood: Redefining Aging, Transforming Medicine, Reimagining Life (2019). The reviewer for Nature called it, “Exquisitely written... a new paradigm: a re-balancing act in which technology has a role but the focus returns to care.... One can only hope its practices are adopted swiftly.” Aronson is Professor of Medicine at UC San Francisco, where she directs UCSF Health Humanities and Social Advocacy Initiative.
Cosponsored by The Albany Guardian Society: Service to Seniors in the Capital District. To register for the morning event, visit: www.albanyguardiansociety.org.
Afternoon event cosponsored by UAlbany’s RNA Institute and School of Public Health, UAlbany’s Women in Science and Health network (WISH), and the Hudson Valley RNA Club.
Back by Popular Demand!

LITERATURE IN PERFORMANCE

May 2, 2020 (Saturday)

Performance — 7:30 p.m.,
Main Theatre, Performing Arts Center

Advance tickets: $15 general public • $10 students, seniors & UAlbany faculty-staff.
Day of show tickets: $20 general public • $15 students, seniors & UAlbany faculty-staff. For more information, contact the PAC Box Office: (518) 442-3997.

It’s story time...
for adults

Spellbinding short stories by established and emerging writers take on new life when they are performed by stars of stage, screen and television. Public Radio International’s wildly popular series and podcast comes to town offering a unique evening of literature in performance. Stay tuned to nyswritersinstitute.org for more updates on the featured stories and cast.

Presented in collaboration with the UAlbany Performing Arts Center with support from the University at Albany Foundation, Office of Intercultural Student Engagement, University Auxiliary Services, and Residence Inn by Marriott.
To sign up for email updates and for additional information on events, video clips, and literary news, visit our website at: www.nyswritersinstitute.org and follow us on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, and Twitter.

On Campus Parking:

Courtesy parking for Writers Institute events on the Uptown Campus will be available in the State Quad Student Parking Lot one hour prior to and one hour after events.

Visitor Parking lots are also available for $5 per vehicle, though parking spaces are very limited.

For Downtown Campus events, courtesy parking will be available in the Thurlow Student Parking Lot.

Handicapped entrances available: Milne Hall (from Washington Avenue) and Richardson Hall (Page Courtyard, Western Avenue).

For a map of the campuses including parking lots go to: https://www.albany.edu/map/index.php

With special thanks to our primary sponsors,
The University at Albany Foundation, The New York State Writers Institute Classic Film Series Endowment, and The Maguire Family Endowment at the NYSWI.

The New York State Writers Institute gratefully acknowledges the support of University Auxiliary Services, Division of Student Affairs, Student Association, Alumni Association, Office of the President, Office of the Provost, Office of University Events, Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza, University at Albany Bookstore, WAMC Northeast Public Radio, Albany Times Union, and Friends of Writing.

William Kennedy, Executive Director
Paul Grondahl, Director

University at Albany · Science Library 320
1400 Washington Avenue · Albany, NY 12222
Tel: (518) 442-5620 · email: writers@albany.edu
website: www.nyswritersinstitute.org
Support the Writers Institute

If you enjoy attending the wide range of our cultural events, please consider supporting the Writers Institute.

Yes! I/we would like to make a gift in support of the Writers Institute.

To Donate Online with a Credit Card:
Visit www.nyswritersinstitute.org and click “Support Our Work”

To Donate by Check:
Make check payable to: The University at Albany Foundation

GIFT AMOUNT:

☐ $100    ☐ $50    ☐ $25    ☐ Other $________

Mail check and form to: The University at Albany Foundation
University at Albany
1400 Washington Ave, UAB 226
Albany, NY 12222

Gifts are tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law.

Thank you for your generosity.